

SANDA STARK

Bio

Stark recently retired from the School of the Museum of Fine Arts/Tufts, Emerita, where she taught full-time in the Photography Department for 40 years. She has had exhibitions at the Bernard Toale Gallery, Boston; National Museum of American Art at the Smithsonian, Washington, DC; Houston Center of Photography; Museum of Fine Arts, Boston; deCordova Museum and Sculpture Park, Lincoln, MA; Walker Art Museum, Minneapolis, MN; Harvard University; Massachusetts Institute of Technology in Cambridge, MA. ; Columbia University, NY. and University of NH Art Museum.

She has received numerous grants and has been a visiting artist at Princeton University, Rhode Island School of Design, San Francisco Camerawork, and the Museum of Contemporary Photography in Chicago. Her work is in the collections of the Museum of Fine Arts, Boston; the Museum of Fine Arts, Houston; Harvard's Fogg Museum; and numerous private collections. She has enjoyed three residencies at The MacDowell Colony, NH.

Stark is also a professional fiddle player who has played with well-known old-time bands around the country.

She is represented by the Howard Yezerski Gallery, Boston.